2018
ANNUAL CONFERENCE
MAY 10-11

The Legacy Lodge &
Conference Center
7000 Lanier Islands Parkway
Buford, Georgia

Healthcare will continue its ongoing transformation driven by public policy changes, elections, economic realities, and demand, but no charitable clinic can prosper until its leaders are inspired, willing to collaborate, and look for ways to innovate services. The essential aspects of healthcare—compassion, trust, and continuity require it. When that happens, there are new and amazing outcomes.

Over the course of two days, the conference will highlight the topics, projects, communities, health professionals and partnerships that have tied their results to innovative and extraordinary results.

The work of caring for the hundreds of uninsured in your community can seem overwhelming, but every day others like you tackle the problem head on, one patient at a time. Come share, learn, be inspired--and inspire others!
