

Strengthening Georgia's health care safety net by empowering organizations serving vulnerable populations

LEADING THE WAY ON HEALTH CARE

The 16th Annual GCCN Conference is the premier educational and networking meeting for Georgia's free and charitable clinics, their safety net partners and advocates.

Heading into a new decade, the challenges and opportunities facing health care continue to be many and varied, but the need for flexible, capable leadership that can shape the future is clearer than ever—and our sector can lead the way.

Why? You are a prolific innovator in health care. Because you work closely with vulnerable populations, you improvise ways to enhance treatment and facilitate care by developing workarounds and processes that improve quality--creating efficiencies, and positively affecting patient outcomes.

Your work produces valuable insights on the pivotal shifts taking place across the health care landscape. We need you to share your expertise and take advantage of a unique opportunity to network with and learn from your peers.
